Fun Facts About WOMEN Who Wore Glasses

Rosa Parks was a civil rights activist who refused to surrender her seat to a white passenger on a segregated bus in Montgomery, Alabama.

Her defiance sparked the Montgomery Bus Boycott. Its success launched nationwide efforts to end racial segregation of public facilities.

Ruth Bader Ginsburg became the second female justice of the U.S. Supreme Court. In the 1970s, she served as the director of the Women's Rights Project of the American Civil Liberties Union.

She was later appointed to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia in 1980. In 1993 she was named to the U.S. Supreme Court.
